

6516209442.txt

It's the American way. Please do not attempt to impose big government on free enterprise and competition in using the latest in high technology. My wife's gift to me of XM Radio has been one I've enjoyed immensely. While on business trips, I miss having the choices in my rental car that I now have while I'm home. Thank you for not letting lobbyists stifle unfair business practices.